Special thanks are extended to Dorothy Vrtiska Gunzelman, and Steve and Jeannine Vrtiska for their help with the Joseph and Theresa Wenzl Vrtiska families. Also to Bertha Marousek and William Kerins who were of special assistance with the Frances Vrtiska Marousek families. And to Alice Bolton Morey who was of special help with the Mary Vrtiska Clema families.

To the rest of you that helped with your immediate families, I also wish to thank you. The histories and photos that you provided were all valuable in piecing together the following pages of material.

Names and dates are recorded as given by various individuals; we trust that you will overlook errors. Much time and correspondence has gone in to the gathering of the information. It's been a real joy and sense of accomplishment as I awaited the mailman and the responses that you sent. I've especially enjoyed meeting so many of you through letter and in person.

The first Vrtiska family reunion is scheduled for July 14, 1984, 12 noon, at the Table Rock Legion Hall, Table Rock, Nebraska.

Thanks again to any and all who so generously gave of their time and effort to make this book possible.

Dedication of the work in this book is to my family in hopes that someday their descendants will continue it.

The picture for the cover is influenced by the poem that follows.

THE PIONEERS OF NEBRASKA

The pioneers of Nebraska
Drove oer the prairies of Iowa.
The journey was rough and long.
The covered wagons rolled right along.
Crossing rivers they traveled ahead,
Heading West towards their homestead.
Tired and weary, lack of rest,
Traveling on to build the West.

When the days work was done,
Under wind, rain and the sun.
Pioneers of the West were singing,
Joy in their hearts a ringing.
Dancing and singing under evening stars,
Cowboys were playing on their guitars.
Where old friendships would never change,
All lived happy on the range.

Building houses of sod and grass,
Starting to build up the West.
From morn till night they'd toil,
Plowing and dragging the prairie soil.
In all weather cowboys would battle,
Tending to the herds of cattle.
The pioneers of the West land
Did always give a helping hand.

Enclosed with your request was copy of the birth certificate of Josef Vrtiška who was born in Bohemia(Western part of Czechoslovakia), in the community of Nemyšl,(house) number 2 on July 13, 1846. His parents were recorded in the document as Jan Vrtiška, farmer, and Marie, daughter of Jan Smrčka cooper from the village of Prudice.

Jan Vrtiška, the farmer from Nemyšl #2, came from a village by the name of Úraz(popularly known as Ouraz). He was born there on August 9, 1802 at the farm #3 as it is entered in the register of the Roman Catholic Church in Hoštice in the birth records of 1785-1854 for the community of Úraz, on page 5. His parents are recorded as Josef Vrtiška, farmer, and Corota, daughter of Matěj Borkovec, a freeholder from Slabsko. The name Jan was probably given to him on account of his godfather Jan Prchlik, miller from Uraz, who signed the baptismal record with three crosses.

Jan Vrtiška had an older sister Anna(born on April 4, 1799), brother Vojtěch(born on April 25, 1796), and brother Jan born on October 7, 1793) who died of smallpox on May 14, 1795. He also had a younger brother Josef who was born on March 22, 1807 and who later inherited the farm #3 in Úraz. All the above mentioned facts are included in the register of the Roman Catholic Church in Hoštice. Furthermore, it is recorded there that Josef, the younger brother of Jan Vrtiška, later married Marie Kubkova from Nasavrky and that in the years 1830-1852 they had eight children(twin boys in 1852).

Both older brothers Vrtiška had to find their homes elsewhere. Vojtěch(born April 25, 1796) later owned a farm in Petrovice and married Marie Králová from Oldřichov. Jan Vrtiška settled in Nemyšl and married Marie Smrčková, daughter of Jan Smrčka, cooper from Prudice. That community also belonged to the church at Hoštice. In the birth records for Prudice page 19, Marie Smrčková's birth was recorded for the day of January 4, 1815. She was born in the house #12 and her parents were Jan Smrčka, cottager and cooper, and Anna, daughter of František Vesleík, farmer of Prudice.

In marriage records of the same church register, there is a record of the marriage of Jan Smrčka, cooper, 24 years old, to Anna, a 17 year old daughter of František Veselik, farmer of Prudice #8. The ceremony took place on November 5, 1799.

The parents of Jan Vrtiška died in Úraz in the same year; first Dorota Vrtišková, née Borkovcová, on January 23, 1843, at the age of 70, and then her husband Josef Vrtiška on March 27, 1843, at the age of 80.

JOHN AND MARY SMRCKA VRTISKA

John(Jan) Vrtiska, the second youngest son of Josef and Dorota Borkoved Vrtiška, was born August 9, 1902. His parents lived and farmed in a village by the name of Úraz (popularly known as Ouraz) at farm #3. This is recorded in the register of the Roman Catholic Church in Hoštice on John's birth record.

John's father, Josef, was born in about 1763, as he was 80 years old at the time of his death on March 27, 1843. His mother, Dorota, died on January 23, 1843 at the age of 70, so was born in about 1873.

John had three brothers and one sister; the oldest brother, also named Jan was born October 7, 1793, and died of smallpox on May 14, 1795. John's brother, Vojtěch, was born April 25, 1796 and married Marie Kralova. His sister, Anna, was born April 4, 1799. There is no other information available on her. His youngest brother, Josef, was born March 22, 1807, and married Marie Kubka. They had 8 children. The first child died at the age of 12 of dysentery, and the youngest were twin boys, one of which was a stillborn child.

It seems that Josef, the youngest brother of John's inherited the farm of the father, so Vojtěch and John had to find homes elsewhere. Vojtěch went to the town of Petrovice, and John settled in Nemyšl and married Mary(Marie) Smrčka, daughter of Jan Smrčka and Anna Veselík. Mary's father was a cooper and was 24 years old when he married 17 year-old Anna. They lived in Prudice where Mary was born on January 4, 1815.

It is not known when John and Mary married, but it was possibly 1840 or 1841, as their first child was born in 1842. They had six known children; John, Mary, Joseph, Ann, Rudolph, and Frances.

Several stories have been related regarding the arrival of this family to the United States.

It has been said that Mary had a hotel or boarding house in Nemyšl, which she sold for a good price before coming to America. It has also been said that she and the family carried the gold received from this sale on their persons, and the weight of the gold was very heavy, and made them very tired.

*Josie Seidl remembers her mother telling her this. She also remembered hearing that John had owned a tourist or eating house. He became ill with pneumonia and died.

The following was found in Czechs and Nebraska, copyright 1967, page 121.....

RUDOLPH AND MARY VRTISKA left Bohemia in 1867 with their three sons and three daughters. The father became sick and died on the voyage and was buried at sea. The mother and family arrived seven weeks later in the United States and settled for a short time in Chicago. Frances, the youngest daughter, remained to work in Chicago and the rest of the family moved to Pawnee County where they homesteaded near Steinauer.

It isn't known who provided the information for this article. This is the only place where John has been referred to as Rudolph. Several things do follow the other information-- We know that they were in Chicago for a short time; there are three sons and three daughters; and that the family did homestead near Steinauer in Pawnee County. In 1867, Frances was only 10 years old. Would she have remained in Chicago to work, while the rest of the family went to Pawnee County, Nebraska?

The newspaper story about Joseph Vrtiska's journey to the United States, page 52 relates that Joseph came across to join his brother, John, who was already in Chicago. Joseph arrived here on March 5, 1867. This story is told by Joseph himself, so should be reliable. It also tells of the two brothers going to Nebraska together the next year.

It is not known when Mary came to Nebraska, but on the 1870 census records of Nebraska, Pawnee County, she; her sons, John and Joseph; and daughter, Anna, are listed.

Pawnee County court house records show that on the 20th of May, 1862, Mary's sons, John and Joseph homesteaded land. Joseph had 160 acres known as north ½ of SW quarter of Section 21 and north ½ of the SE quarter of Section 29 in township 3, north of range 11 E. In July, 1874, 40 acres of this land of John's was sold to his mother for $250 and other 120 acres were sold to his brother, Rudolph for $750. The forty acres of Mary's was later deeded to her son, Joseph.

We also know that her son, John, received his citizenship on April 24, 1872, as shown on the document printed on page 18. To receive your citizenship in the United States, you had to live here for five years without having left the country, and to have been in the state where you applied for at least one year. This leads us to believe that John arrived in Nebraska prior to April 24, 1871, and in the United States prior to April 24, 1867. His brother was said to arrive on March 5, 1867 and relates that John was already here, so it would have had to be earlier than April 24, 1867.

We may never unlock the clues that tell us for sure who came when. Most of the information seems to lead us to believe that John probably came first, followed by his brother, Joseph, and then Mary and the family remaining in Bohemia followed.

What lured these people to the United States? Could it have been friends who had gone earlier? A desire for new freedoms or just a desire for adventure?

On May 30, 1854, the Nebraska Territory had been created by the Kansas-Nebraska Bill. In 1864 the Nebraska Immigrant Association was formed to sell Nebraska abroad and in the Eastern States. Information circulated that was printed in several languages.

Slogans such as these appeared in the Nebraska City News: "Nebraska invites the homeless and houseless to her fertile soil. Come to Nebraska! Snap your fingers in the face of your creditors---here be men again, and secure for yourselves farms, homes---then pay off just demands against you here and elsewhere."

Under the Free Homestead Law of 1862, signed by President Abraham Lincoln, any man or woman 21 years old or the head of a family could have 160 acres of land if he would live on it 5 years and pay a small fee(about $18). Could this be the attraction that brought them to Nebraska?

One can only speculate what happened as pieces of the puzzle are examined and put into place. We have to admire their courage and determination as they embark on a journey to a new land across the ocean.

We do know that there were many troubled times in Bohemia and Czechoslovakia. History tells us of many wars involving Bohemia and Czechoslovakia. At one point Bohemia was considered to be part of Austria, and/or Hungary. Perhaps this is why we find Austria mentioned on many of the early documents. As time marched on, Bohemia became a province of the new independent republic of Czechoslovakia(1918). This independent country was made up of Bohemia, Moravia, and Slovakia. The Czechoslovakia Constitution established the country as a democratic republic. In the years that followed, Hitler had a stronghold in Czechoslovakia. In 1948, Communists had complete control of the government. Today Czechoslovakia is a tightly controlled Communist state and a loyal ally of Russia.

Could our ancestors have had visions of the future and have chosen a new life for themselves in the United States? Much of this and the questions that surround their early days of the middle 1800's will remain among the mysteries of their lives.

Later in life, Mary, lived with her son, Joseph, She died on May 14, 1890, and is buried in St. Anthony's Cemetery at Steinauer, Nebraska.

The pages that follow tell about each of her six children and their descendants.

It is interesting to note that the same names were used over and over within families. If a child died before manhood, this name was often used again for a later born child. One can only wonder why it was so important to use the same names over and over. It certainly makes it more challenging for sorting out names in family histories.

OUR HERITAGE

As granite stands against the raging storm,
And dikes toss back the fury of the sea,
Our fathers stood amidst the untamed land,
To carve from it a nation yet to be.
Their work seemed crude, their homes of prairie sod,
Seemed lonely on the plain. Yet this we know--
In August's burning heat or winter's snow,
Within these humble homes they worshipped God.
They built foundations strong. How will we build?
On shifting sands or on the granite wall
Of noble dreams and consecrated lives,
As men who dare accept the Master's call.

I. JOHN VRTISKA, SR.

John Vrtiska, Sr. first saw the light of day in Nemesli County in Tabor, Bohemia, on March 25, 1842. Mr. Vrtiska came to America with his mother, brothers and sisters in 1866. They landed in Chicago and the next year came to Pawnee County, Nebraska.

On July 8, 1871, he was united in marriage to Josephine Kovanda. They were married at Nebraska City, Nebraska in the Catholic Church. Their attendants were John Clima and Frances Kovanda.

Josephine Kovanda was born in Trimani, Czechoslovakia on January 6, 1849. She came to Chicago with her parents in 1867. In 1869, she came to Nebraska where her parents had already settled.

John and Josephine were among the pioneers of Pawnee County, Nebraska and encountered all the hardships of the early settlers. After their marriage, they settled on a homestead south of Steinauer, Nebraska. It is said that Josephine was unhappy there because the land contained very few trees.

Three years later, they moved to a farm four miles north of Table Rock, Nebraska. Lloyd Vrtiska lives on this farm at the present time. The first house at this location was a log cabin which stood about ½ mile east of the present house. Later they built a frame house, quite a large two-story house.

Three children were born to this union; Joseph, John, and Rudolph.

In 1908, they moved to the home of their son, John. This farm being located three miles north of Table Rock, Nebraska. They remained here until the time of their deaths. John Sr. died on February 19, 1912 with appendicitis complications. Josephine died on June 28, 1937, the cause of her death being cancer. Both are buried at the Bohemian Cemetery east of Table Rock, Nebraska.

Anthony R.(A.R.) was born in Czechoslovakia on May 6, 1863. He came with his parents to the United States in 1867. An article from A History of Czechs in Nebraska follows on the pages. His father was Albert Kovanda.

The young couple began housekeeping on Mr. Kovanda's farm north of Table Rock, Nebraska. Her their son, Rudy, was born on March 22, 1893. pages 124 and 125---Mr. A.R. Kovanda, Table Rock Nebraska, who came with parents in 1867, his father Albert Kovanda taking a cabin then, writes: "We went from St. Joseph by boat to Aspinwall, now extinct. Herman and Shary had a tavern there. The next morning my father, who had preceded us to prepare a place, came with Mr. Skala and took us to Frank Raitera's farm, to a dug-out. That was in August, 1867. From there we went to our claim, where we camped. As far as eye could see there was nothing but the bare prairie, not a house or piece of timber anywhere. The next day my father and oldest brother made a dug-out, for father had bought a team of oxen in St. Joseph and so was able to haul logs and brushwood. Our abode was all right in dry weather, but all wrong in rainy times, when it filled with water. We lived there a year, than father hauled boards from Brownville, and erected a frame shelter over the hole. This was all right in warm and calm weather, all wrong in cold or windy weather, too much ventilation. Our land was crossed by an Indian trail leading west from St. Joseph and from Kansas City to Nebraska City. Some Indians stopped every day, begging food and tobacco. Mother gave them rye or corn bread and they departed satisfied."

pages 472 and 473---Mrs. Anna R. Kovanda, Table Rock, Nebraska, was for several years vice-president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association for Nebraska and in 1915 was elected president. However, she resigned that honor and again became vice-president. For four years (1910-1914) she directed the Headquarters of Literature at the Epworth League Assembly in Lincoln and also in Pawnee City, Nebraska. For her loyal and energetic service, she received a diploma entitling her to the Honor Roll of the brave army of men and women who have rendered distinguished service to the cuase of woman suffrage in America. This diploma is signed by Carrie Chapman Catt, President, and Jeanette L. Wilson, Recording Secretary. Mrs. Kovanda has also been active among her own people, having taught the Czech School and directed many dramatic performances in Czech and participating in lodge life. Mrs. Kovanda's parents, John Klima and wife, were Pawnee County pioneers. She was born on their farm near Steinauer, February 28, 1873. She attended the public schools and the Pawnee City Academy. On August 18, 1891, she married A.R. Kovanda, a son of pioneers there. They have one son, now president of the State Bank of Elk Creek.

They encountered a storm at sea, and it was March 5, 1867 when he landed in New York. (A copy of the newspaper account follows) From New York, he went to Chicago where his brother John resided. The two of them then came to Pawnee County, Nebraska, where they homesteaded land.

ADRIFT IN ATLANTIC OCEAN

(This article appeared in the Tecumseh Chieftain, Feb. 24, 1923)

HORRIBLE EXPERIENCE OF A TECUMSEH MAN

Three Months Required in Trip from Bohemia to United States Many Years Ago

Many are the men of this, and every other community, who could recite incidents in their lives which would be most interesting, were there any way to induce a recital of such narratives. We have in mind especially an experience of our highly esteemed fellow citizen, Joseph Vrtiska. The Chieftain recently learned that there was an experience of far more than passing interest, in the life of this citizen, and we have the facts of the same from that gentleman, and his permission to publish them. It was the experience Mr. Vrtiska had in coming to the United States, some fifty-seven years ago.

Mr. Vrtiska was born at Nemisel Village, Tabor, Bohemia, July 13, 1846. With great difficulty he came to the United States in 1867. He sailed from Bremen, November 15, 1866, and, through the difficulties above hinted at, was able to land in New York City on March 3, the next year, 1867. The boat he embarked on was a German freight and passenger craft, "Amelia," of the old sailboat pattern depending entirely upon the winds for power of navigation. There were perhaps 300 passengers aboard the boat, together with a full assignment of freight. Mr. Vrtiska, a young man of limited means, was obliged to take passage in the steerage. There was a wait at Bremen of a full week after he reached port, before there was sufficient wind for the "Amelia" to assume the ocean trip. In those days of sailing boats several weeks were required to cross the Atlantic, even with most favorable of weather. From the day of sailing until the last day of December the "Amelia" plowed the waters of the great ocean steadily, day by day, and seemed to be making progress which was satisfactory to the captain and other boat officers. At that time the captain ordered the boat cleaned up and advised that she was within two days of the American port, New York City. It was a custom to have the boat ready for "dress parade" upon landing.

The very day that the captain passed the word along that he expected to land his passengers within two days a terrible storm came up from the west, becoming most terrific by midnight. The storm became so violent the boat was practically helpless. The great masts and sails of the boat were blown down, and the captain ordered men on the decks, secured with life lines to guard against being dashed away in the infuriated waters. to cut the huge ropes and other moorings which clung to the vessel, the fear being they would cause the boat to capsize. These were washed away in the monstrous drifts of water, and the great hulk was at the mercy of the storm. For four days and nights the vessel rolled and tossed in the terrible seas, and, even though the boat was sealed at best it could be, water washing over it found its way into the craft, and filled the lower portion of the boat to a considerable depth. The pumps were out of commission and it began to look as though a sufficient amount of the water would soon fill the boat to cause it to sink. At any moment it was feared the vessel might capsize.

Fearful of the added weight of the water causing the boat to go down, the captain ordered every able bodied man on the boat into service, and he caused a great deal of the freight of the boat to be thrown out of the hatchways, as opportunity would offer, to lighten the load. Finally, after hours and hours of terrorizing anxiety on the part of the passengers and the most heroic work by the officers and men of the boat, the storm subsided and the ship stopped tossing. The passengers were allowed to go to the decks, and a sorry sight, indeed, greeted their eyes. During the four days of the storm there had been but little, if anything, to eat, and this was served with difficulty, for the boat pitched and tossed so badly it was almost impossible for persons to stay in their bunks, to say nothing of getting about the boat. With the calming of the sea a period of four weeks of helpless drifting started for the "Amelia". The captain organized his men, every male passenger, and started a systematic work of unloading the freight, and this work proceeded all the time. The ship's instruments indicated that the boat had been driven from the usual paths of transportation, and there was fear of inability to signal help. Every effort was put forth to attract the attention of any boat that might be in the locality. Imagine the disappointment of these distressed people when the first boat, easily sighted by the passengers, failed to notice the distress signals and passed on its way without a signal of any sort. The captain ordered all the canvas on the boat brought up, and made some improvised sails, small indeed but which caused the boat to make some little headway and which it was hoped might be seen by passing craft. At last a sailing vessel which was to be the succor of the "Amelia" hove in sight. Every possible energy at signaling was put into force, and after a considerable time, there came an answer. The strange boat went out of its course, and sailed as near the "Amelia" as the officers dared. The captains exchanged messages over their speaking instruments, for it must be borne in mind that this was years before the thought of wireless had entered the head of man. With difficulty the officers exchanged words and finally the strange vessel lifted its sails and disappeared. The captain informed the anxious passengers that the sail boat was not able to take them off, but that the captain left word that he would go for help at once. About a day and one-half after there was joy on the "Amelia", indeed, when a steamboat or large tug approached and signalled the boat in distress.

All hands were soon on deck, the day was pleasant and the water quiet. But soon the captain ordered everybody below, explaining afterwards that he wanted to "dicker" with the steamboat owner, and, if he should see all the passengers on deck, his charge for towing the stranded boat to port would likely be more than it would be if he thought there were few, if any, passengers. After the "deal" had been made, terms agreed upon, the captain allowed all to return to the deck. A great two line or hauser was thrown from the steamboat and made fast to the "Amelia", and the rescue boat got under good steam and the boats proceeded towards a haven of safety. Twenty-four hours after, the "Amelia" was towed into the harbor at Liverpool. In other words, after being on the ocean for nearly two months, and having gotten within two days of his landing place on this side, Mr. Vrtiska found himself comparatively near his port of embarkation in the old country, having experienced an ocean voyage which drove one passenger insane, and during which three had died, to be buried at sea.

An inspector came aboard the "Amelia" at Liverpool, and he ordered the immediate unloading of passengers, stating that the vessel could float but a couple of days longer under its great load of water which had washed into it during the storm. Five days after reaching the port the passengers of the doomed boat found themselves aboard a good ocean going steamboat, with better fare and accommodations. Their tickets were honored for transportation, and so, you see, they really had three trips across the Atlantic for the price of one. Three weeks later Mr. Vrtiska found himself in New York City. Counting the time required in going from his native village to Bremen, and that consumed in the terrible ocean voyage first above recited, as well as that of the final passage, Mr. Vrtiska was three months in reaching New York City from his native home. In this day of rapid railroad travel, and with few days only required for the ocean trip, it is hard to realize his hardships. A brother, John Vrtiska, had located in Chicago, coming to this country before the Tecumseh gentleman did, and Mr. Vrtiska went to that city at once to join him. In July of the year of the landing here Mr. Vrtiska came to the great west of the day, taking a homestead in Pawnee County, which he proved up and where the family lived for many years. Mr. Vrtiska's wife was Theresa Wenzl, and they were married in Pawnee County fifty years ago on October 3 of last year. They are the parents of ten children, five boys and five girls, none of whom are now living at home, but all having homes of their own. Mr. and Mrs. Vrtiska have been residents of our city for the past eight years, and are among our most highly respected people. In a talk with the gentleman concerning the eventful voyage above set out one gets much more of the horrors of being adrift in a storm swept ocean than it would be possible to write.

B. FRANK VRTISKA

Frank was born on March 29, 1873, on a homestead two miles east of Steinauer, Nebraska. He is the second child of Joseph and Theresa Wenzl Vrtiska. Frank was baptized in the Catholic Church of Steinauer, Nebraska, and raised in the Christian Faith. He was educated in a rural school on the prairie. He loved agriculture and took great pride in maintaining a farm home and producing high quality livestock. As an outstanding raiser of chickens, he exhibited and won trophies in poultry shows and fairs in Southeastern Nebraska. In 1904, at the World's Fair in St. Louis, Missouri, he received a medal for first place on his exhibit of oats. Frank was very interested in community affairs and served many years on the "Wide Awake" rural school board, the Pawnee precinct election board, and the Pawnee County Fair Board.

On September 7, 1896, he was united in marriage to Lena Steinauer. They were married in Tecumseh, Nebraska.

Lena was born on January 31, 1875, on the homestead 1½ miles west of Steinauer Nebraska. She is the daughter of Nicholas and Mary Ann Geiger Steinauer. She had one older brother, Nicholas G., and one twin sister, Ida. Nicholas G., her brother, was married to her husband's sister, Mary Agnes. As a child, Lena, was baptized and later confirmed in the Salem United Church of Christ. The church is located on property donated by her father and is a portion of the original homestead.

To this union three children were born; Erma(Mrs. Leo Metzger), Gertrude(Mrs. J. Robert Minick), and Ida(Mrs. Willard Loch).

Frank and Lena were both life-time residents of Pawnee County, Nebraska. They lived on a farm northwest of Pawnee City until 1943, and then moved into Pawnee City, Nebraska.

In 1968, Lena was recognized and honored by the Aksarben of Omaha, Nebraska, as a member of a pioneer family who retained ownership of the same land for 100 years.

Frank passed away on April 11, 1953, at Pawnee City, Nebraska due to cardio vascular renal disease. Lena passed away on July 5, 1969 at Pawnee City, Nebraska, the cause of death being a general breakdown following a broken hip. Both are buried in the Pawnee City Cemetery, Pawnee City, Nebraska.

C. FRANCES VRTISKA

Frances Agatha Vrtiska, familiarly known as Fannie, was the third in a family of ten children born to Joseph and Theresa Wenzl Vrtiska. Their home was about two miles east of the village of Steinauer, Nebraska. Fannie attended school in Roadside District, Number 26, south of her parents' home.

She grew to young womanhood and at the age of 26 married Frank Duder of Table Rock, Nebraska. They were married September 25, 1901 in St. Anthony's Catholic Church, Steinauer, Nebraska.

Frank was born in a dugout home on June 22, 1872. He was the seventh child in a family of eleven children of John and Mary Anna Celta Duder, who left Bohemia in 1865 destined for Chicago. His family worked in Chicago two years before journeying to Pawnee County, Nebraska. Frank was born the year his parents received a deed to their land claim which was 2½ miles west of Table Rock, Nebraska. He attended school in District 63, known as the Burgert School. He later served as director of that school board. The Duder family were members of St. John's Catholic Church in Table Rock, Nebraska.

Frank remained on the farm and built a new home the year of his marriage to Fannie. During his productive years, he was engaged in raising purebred cattle and hogs. They farmed with horses which was the custom at this time. Fannie was a great lover of flowers and houseplants, in addition to raising an abundance of garden vegetables. She was an Altar Society member of St. John's Church.

To this union three children were born; Mira(Mrs. Albert Miller), Lawrence, and Mabel.

They remained on the farm homesteaded by his parents until his death on December 5, 1937. Following the death of her husband, Fannie moved to Table Rock, Nebraska. She passed away on March 27, 1959. Both are buried in St. Anthony's Cemetery at Steinauer, Nebraska.

Mary, the oldest child of Albert and Barbara Raitora Zelenka, was born April 17, 1882, in Pawnee County, Nebraska. She lived in Clear Creek Community and attended school there. Mary was baptized and confirmed in the Steinauer Catholic Church. She loved flowers and gardening.

To this union six children were born; Emma(Mrs. Louie Sochor), Anna(Mrs. Tillman Finch), Albert, Julia(Mrs. Charles Blecha), Valora(Mrs. Maynard Larson), and Frank Leonard.

They started out farming seven miles west of Pawnee City, Nebraska. They also had a sawmill and steam engine threshing machine and crew. In February, 1920, they moved into Pawnee City and started an International, John Deere, and Case Implement Business. In 1945, he sold the business, but continued to work there until 1947, when he retired.

Mary became a wheel chair patient in 1946, but maintained her home. She pieced many quilts during this time.

They celebrated their Silver wedding anniversary in 1927.

Mary passed away in Pawnee City on December 2, 1948, after being in ill health for several years. The cause of death was a stroke. Joseph passed away at the Pawnee Memorial Hospital on April 5, 1966, from cardiovascular disease. Both are buried in the Pawnee City Cemetery.

G. ANTON PHILLIP VRTISKA

Anton Phillip Vrtiska, the seventh child and youngest son of Joseph and Theresa Wenzl Vrtiska, was born on October 17, 1887, at Steinauer, Nebraska. Anton attended school for eight years at District 26 in Steinauer, Nebraska.

On July 20, 1914, he was united in marriage to Emma Magdalena Obrist, the oldest child of John and Mary Steinauer Obrist.

Emma was born on August 31, 1893, at Cold Point, a former vicinity near Steinauer, Nebraska.

Anton and Emma lived on and farmed the land which his father had homesteaded.

Eleven children were born to this union; Donata(Mrs. James Prendergast), Adrian, Madeline(Mrs. Lloyd Matthews), Mary Theresa(Mrs. Norman Rinne), John Anthony, Charles, Dorothy (Mrs. Linus Gunzelman), Margaret(Sr. Mary Walter Vrtiska), Anthony, William Michael, and Betty Ann(Mrs. Edward Karbowski, Mrs. Gary Bedea).

On May 30, 1946, Anton died of cancer at St. Joseph's Hospital, Omaha, Nebraska. Due to a stroke in 1973, Emma's health began to fail. In March of 1979, she became a resident at the Pawnee Manor in Pawnee City, Nebraska. She passed away on November 11, 1981, at Pawnee City, Nebraska, leaving 116 direct descendants. Both are buried in St. Anthony's Cemetery, Steinauer, Nebraska.

Here is a tribute that was written in her behalf.

A TRIBUTE TO GRANDMA VRTISKA

It is very hard to say all that could be or should be said about Grandma, but I think we should remember, although the tears fall freely, this is an occasion of great being with God, with Grandpa, Uncle Tony and others she loved. More importantly, be glad for the peace she has found; that peace, which only comes from being with God. Ask God in His mercy, to send us a portion of that peace to ease the sorrow that is now in our hearts.

Know too, that on November 11, when God smiled, held out His hands and said, "Emma, come home," that Grandma went with much to be said in her behalf.

I think we should pray today, and in the future, for one another. By doing so, each of us can keep faith with the legacy of love she left us. Grandma left us not only an example of love, but also with examples of humility, patience, wisdom, fortitude, and a deep reverence of God.

Children were attracted to her, and maybe it was because these qualities were easily seen through the innocent eyes of a child. In addition, Grandma left us with many beautiful memories. This lady, simple and good, yet so grand, always had a smile in her eyes and soft words on her lips. She had a fragrance of warm cookies or fresh bread, and her dress was covered by a big apron, which invited a hug and was perfect for wiping of a tear.

Each of us has our own special memories. Now that we are no longer faced with the harsh reality of a small, fragile lady lying in a bed, Grandma is freed by our remembering.

Free to walk with Grandpa, she can scold her children or hug them; she can sit and patch overalls; she can feed her kitties on the porch; she can be back in her garden making her flowers grow; and she can hold her babies on her lap and teach them to patty-cake.

She is free when we remember and we have the freedom to choose the time and place, to seek the warmth of our memories, whenever we wish. Then too, remember that having shared time with Grandma, has made our lives a little brighter, and that having known her, has made each of us a better person.

The loss of a loved one is a cross we must bear in life. Grandma's life was filled with crosses, but she, in her own uncomplaining way, only tried harder with each new cross. Seek comfort in the thought that God, in His justice, has rewarded her generously for the keeping of His commandments and the way she lived His law of love.

-----This was written and presented by Kathleen Gunzelman Conradson, November 14, 1981, at the Mass of Resurrection, for Emma Vrtiska.

RUDOLPH VERTISKA

V. RUDOLPH VERTISKA

Rudolph, the fifth child of John and Mary Smrcka Vrtiska, was born on October 1, 1853 in Bohemia.

On September 3, 1875, Rudolph was married to Frances Eis, the daughter of Anton and Marie Zulek Eis. They were married in Humboldt, Nebraska.

Frances was born on August 16, 1854, at Slavikof, Czechoslovakia. In 1868, she came with her parents to the United States, making the trip on what she believed to be the first steamship to sail the Atlantic Ocean. While it was faster than the sailing boats, they were 41 days making the trip across the water. After a short stay in New York, the family came directly to Humboldt to join her uncle, Charles Zulek and his family on a farm south of Humboldt.

Rudolph worked for Nims Brothers General Merchandise Partnership in Humboldt, Nebraska.

To this union, a son was born on October 1, 1877. He was named Rudolph Vertiska, Sr.

The father, Rudolph, died on December 31 , 1879, and Frances was left on her own with a small child. Rudolph is buried at Humboldt, Nebraska.

FRANCES EIS 16 Aug 1854 - 26 March 1940
Married 3 Sept 1875

A. Rudolph Vertiska, Sr. 1 Oct 1877

*According to the family, the spelling difference is for the following reason. Vrtiska is the Bohemian spelling and Vertiska is the American spelling. They decided that since they were in America, they would use the American spelling.

After the death of Rudolph, Frances later met Alois Watzek. On July 18, 1883, in Falls City, Nebraska, Fannie was married to Prof. Alois Watzek, the famous band director. To this union three children were born; two sons and one daughter. These children are; Charles, William and Mary (Mrs. Clay Nemechek).

Fannie and Alois celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on July 18, 1933.

Alois was born May 10, 1857, the son of Joseph and Catherine Hladik Watzek(Vacek). He was born in Bohemia. The spelling Vacek is used on the marriage certificate.

Alois died on January 15, 1936, and Fannie on March 26, 1940. She died after a bout with pneumonia. Both are buried in the Humboldt Cemetery, Humboldt, Nebraska.

Rudolph Vertiska, Sr., the only child of Rudolph and Frances Eis Vertiska, was born on October 1, 1877, in Humboldt, Nebraska. His father passed away when he was only two years old and his mother later married Alois Watzek.

On August 7, 1907, Rudolph and Mary Barnhardt were united in marriage at Humboldt, Nebraska.

Mary, the daughter of August and Julia Triggs Barnhardt, was born on October 3, 1880 in Dawson, Nebraska.

Rudolph Vertiska, Sr.

They spent their married life in the vicinity of Humboldt, Nebraska, where Rudolph worked as a tin smith and druggist. He was a member of the Bohemian Turners Club and a fire chief for the Humboldt Volunteer Fire Department. He held this position for 45 years.

To this union one child, Rudolph Jr. was born on October 1, 1908. It's interesting to note that all three Rudolph's have October 1 as their birthdate.

Frances, the sixth child and youngest of John and Mary Smrcka Vrtiska, was born on July 10, 1857/1863 in Czechoslovakia. (A birth paper that follows shows her birthyear as being 1857, but the age on her marriage license makes the the birthyear as 1863.)

On July 23, 1882, in Chicago, Illinois, Frances was married to Frank Marousek. Frank, one of seven children was born on August 2, 1862 to Vaclav(James) and Katerina Jamisek Marousek. This is taken from the parish records. Frank came to the Unites States in May of 1879.

Fran worked as a carpenter the early years of his life. In his later years, he was a men's tailor. He worked as a tailor until he was injured in an accident in 1928. He then retired.

F. FRANK MAROUSEK

Frank Marousek was born at Chicago, Illinois, September 27, 1896. He was the sixth of nine children born to Frank and Frances Vrtiska Marousek. He was raised and educated in Chicago, Illinois.

At age fifteen, he went to work as an Order Editor. He held that job both before and after his service in the U.S. Army. He was inducted into the Army on May 25, 1918. He served as a Private in Company "D" of the 140th Infantry. From October of 1918 until April of 1919, he served in France. He was honorably discharged on April 16, 1919.

In 1922, he moved with his family from Chicago to Brookfield, Illinois, where he worked as a carpenter.

On November 26, 1924, at City Hall in Chicago, Illinois, he married Erna Anna Prazak. Erna was born Hermina Anna Prazakova on October 19, 1900 at Svihov, Czechoslovakia. She was the fifth of nine children born to Frank and Barbora Scehly Prazak. Erna came to the U.S.A. with her family in 1906.

The newlyweds made their home first in Brookfield and then in Hollywood, Illinois. They, like everyone else, found life difficult during the years of the Great Depression. They lost the home that Frank had built with his own two hands; but with determination and a strength of character which would not be defeated, he managed to care for his growing family. The adverse conditions of the time tended to draw families closer together and with the families pooling whatever resources available, Frank and his brothers and sisters, Erna and her brothers and sisters, were all able to survive. At family gatherings in later years, the house would fill with laughter when they reminisced about those days and the things they did. Next to strength of character, a sense of humor just could be the reason that these people were all able to survive such adverse conditions while others were never able to put the pieces together again.

Golden Anniversary taken November 26, 1974

In 1933, Frank was employed as a Water Works Operator by the village of Riverside, Illinois. His third child, Nancy Carol, was born here. They moved from Hollywood to Riverside, Illinois, and he in 1962 retired as the Superintendent of the Water Department. Over the years he received many awards and certificates of merit for his innovative and loyal service to the village. He also was an active member of the Volunteer Fire Department. In 1962, Erna also retired after having been employed for over twenty years by the Railway Express Agency in Chicago, Illinois.

After retiring, Frank and Erna moved to Sacramento, California where their son, Donald, and daughter, Nancy resided. They made their home there until their death. They are buried side by side, at East Lawn Sierra Hills Cemetery, Sacramento, California. Erna died on October 23, 1975, and Frank died just eight days later on November 1, 1975

G. FRANCES MAROUSEK

Frances, the seventh child of Frank and Frances Vrtiska Marousek, was born on November 2, 1895, in Chicago, Illinois.

On April 11, 1917, Frances was united in marriage to Michael George Kerins. They were married in Forest Park, Illinois, at the St. Bernadine Church.

George, as he was known by his family was born on June 9, 1894. His parents are James Aloysius Kerins and Anna Jane Short.

During the Depression years, the carpentry business which was George's livelihood since in the 20's did not fare well. He then did some work for the government, but it seems there was nothing permanent.

Frances was a housewife from the time she was married. Before marriage, she worked at Western Electric Hawthorne Plant in Cicero, Illinois.

To this union, five children were born; George, Anna Jane (Mrs. William Smyth), Donald, Nancy(Mrs. Robert Pople), and Harry.

George passed away on June 4, 1946, in Western Springs, Illinois. After his death, Frances worked in the hospital for a short time. She passed away on March 26, 1972, in Libertyville, Illinois. Both are buried in Mount Auburn Cemetery in Stickney, Illinois.

H. GEORGE WASHINGTON MAROUSEK

George, the eighth child of Frank and Frances Vrtiska Marousek, was born on February 22, 1900, in Chicago, Illinois. George attended school through the tenth grade and then attended a drafting and heating system school. This enabled him to go to work as a heating and ventilating draftsman.

On September 7, 1923, he married Mabel Helen Bruhns. They had met three years earlier when Mabel dropped her handkerchief on purpose in the Busy Bee Ice Cream Parlor. George took the bait and picked it up. They were married in Wheaton, Illinois, by a justice of the peace.

Mabel Bruhns was born at 222 DesPlaines Avenue in Forest Park, Illinois on April 6, 1904. She was the youngest of six children born to Fred and Christina Werobke Bruhns. Mabel attended school through eighth grade.

George and Mabel followed the Protestant religion. To this union, three children were born; George E., Delwyn A., and Alice(Mrs. George Lubinski).

In 1931, as a result of the Depression, the Marouseks opened a Speakeasy in Forest Park Illinois. Then two years later, when Prohibition was repealed, they were able to open a tavern called the "Schnitzel Bank". They both worked very hard and turned it into a very successful business venture. Then George became ill with tuberculosis and died two years later on September 25, 1938.

Mabel continued to run the tavern for 18 years while raising the three children. The children grew up to be a fire chief, a fire lieutenant, and a legal secretary.

George is buried in Woodlawn Cemetery in Forest Park, Illinois. Mabel is living at 4010 Butterfield Road, Bellwood, Illinois 60104.

The pictures below show each of them when they were approximately 38 years old.

and now you are at the end of the book. It is my sincere hope that you get as much enjoyment and pleasure from it as I received in putting it together. Since my information came from many sources which included tombstones, church records, court house records, family records, many people's memories, newspapers, county histories, etc., I realize some of the data may be incorrect; as I just put it together to the best of my ability. There is much more information which has yet to be found.

If you would take a few minutes and jot down any errors which you found and any information which has not been included, and mail it to myself or to Dorothy Vrtiska Gunzelman, we may be able to have this book revised at a later date. This would also make me feel this project has been worth the time and effort put forth.

Again, a big thank you to all of you who helped. Without your helping hands, this could have been lost and never recorded.
